PART 1: INTRODUCTION AND HOUSEHOLD INFORMATION

..... has been selected
(Name of the person selected on the back cover) to be interviewed in this survey. Could I please speak to her/him personally.

Explain to the selected person in his/her home language!

The Central Statistical Service (CSS), South Africa's official statistics agency, on behalf of the Department of Safety and Security and in conjunction with the United Nations, is presently conducting a survey to determine the extent of crime in the country. You personally have been selected to answer questions for this study. We hope that you will answer our questions as honestly and as accurately as possible. All the information that you give us will be treated in the strictest confidence. The answers that you give us will be combined with the results of all other respondents, so that no-one will be able to trace your responses back to you. May I proceed with the interview?

PART 2: CRIMES EXPERIENCED DURING THE PAST 5 YEARS

Now I would like to ask you about some crimes which your household may have experienced during the past five years, 1993 to 1998.

Please note, I am only interested in offences which you and people who live with you at present as a household have experienced. It is sometimes difficult to remember such incidents, so I would like you to take your time and to think carefully about the questions.

Section 4: Housebreaking and Burglary

I would like to start with some questions about housebreaking and burglary.

4.1	Over the past five years, did anyone actually get into your dwelling/s without permission and steal or try to steal something? Here I am not including thefts from garages, sheds or lock-ups, unless these are used as dwellings (places where people actually live). Include cellars, do not count burglaries in second dwellings, such as holiday houses.

PART 4: SOURCES OF HELP

*This part (section 34) is to be completed only for those respondents for whom at least one type of crime has been circled on the flap.
If no crime has been circled on the flap, go to part 5 (section 35).*

Section 34: Sources of Help for Victims of Crime

Think about the crime/crimes that you have spoken about. Let us talk about alternative sources of help you or your household may have turned to, besides or instead of the police, at the time of the last crime (if the respondent/household has been the victim of more than one crime). I am thinking specifically of people or organizations who have supported you or your household. For example your church or your friends.

34.1	Was there any alternative source of emotional support that you or your household turned to, besides or instead of the police, at the time of the (last) crime? 1 YES 2 NO → Go to 34.3
